

Full Stack Developer Case study

An Django app with Vue.js app at front-end which allows user create list of favourite books and manage it:

- customer should be able to login into the app using his own credentials
- user must be able to see list of books he already added, create new, modify and delete them
- book model must contain following fields:
 - author
 - title
 - description
 - poster image

Front-end requirements:

- Use Vuex and Vue router
- Use Element UI as the front-end framework. No additional styling required
- Use Axios in order to communicate with API

Back-end requirements:

- Use django-webpack-loader
- Use django-rest-framework
- Use Django's users model